HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation of great purity, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tonic and liver is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; they, or we should say, the most of them, never feel well. Nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere of labor, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear conscience and full proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

BE NOT THE FIRST.

Oh, be not the first to discover
A blot on the name of a friend,
A flaw in the faith of a lover,
Whose heart may prove true to the end.

We none of us know one another,
And oft into error we fall;
Then let us speak well of each brother,
Or speak not about him at all.

A smile or a sigh may awaken
Suspicion most false and undue;
And thus our belief may be shaken
In hearts that are honest and true.

How often the light smile of gladness
Is worn by the friends that we meet,
To cover a soul full of sadness,
Too proud to acknowledge defeat.

How often the sigh of dejection
Is heaved from the hypocrite's breast,
To parody truth and affection,
Or lull a suspicion to rest.

How often the friends we hold dearest
Their noblest emotions conceal,
And bosoms, the purest, sincerest,
Have secrets they cannot reveal.

Leave base minds to harbor suspicion,
And small ones to trace out defects—
Let ours be a noble ambition,
For base is the mind that suspects.

We none of us know one another,
And oft into error we fall;
Then let us speak well of each brother,
Or speak not about him at all.

A Child's Dream of a Star.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

There was once a child, and he strolled about a good deal, and thought of a number of things. He had a sister, who was a child too, and his constant companion. These two were used to wonder all day long. They wondered at the beauty of the flowers; they wondered at the depth of the blue water; they wondered at the goodness and power of God, who made the lovely world.

They used to say to one another, sometimes, supposing all the children upon earth were to die, would the flowers, and the water, and the sky be sorry? For, said they, the buds are the children of the flowers, and the little playful streams that gambol down the hillsides are the children of the water; and the smallest bright specks playing at hide and seek in the sky all night, must be the children of the stars; and they would all be grieved to see their playmates, the children of men, no more.

There was one clear, shining star, that used to come out in the sky before the rest, near the church spire, above the graves. It was larger and more beautiful, they thought, than all the others, and every night they watched for it, standing hand in hand at the window. Whoever saw it first, cried out, "I see the star." And often they cried out both together, knowing so well when it would rise and where. So they grew to be such friends with it, that, before lying down in their beds, they always looked out once again, to bid it good night; and when they were turning round to sleep they used to say, "God bless the star!"

But while she was still very young, oh, very, very young, the sister drooped, and came to be so weak that she could no longer stand in the window at night; and then the child looked sadly out by himself, and when he saw the star, he turned round and said to the patient pale face on the bed, "I see the star!" and then a smile would come upon the face, and a little weak voice used to say, "God bless my brother and the star!"

And so the time came—all too soon!—when the child looked out alone, and when there was no pale face on the bed; and when there was a little grave among the graves not there before; and when the star made long rays down toward him, as he saw it through his silent tears.

Now, these rays were so bright, and they seemed to make such a shining way from earth to heaven, that when the child went to his solitary bed, he dreamed that, lying where he was, he saw a train of people taken up that sparkling road by angels. And the star, opening, showed him a great world of light, where many more such angels waited to receive them.

All these angels who were waiting turned their beaming eyes upon the people who were carried up into the star; and some came out from the long rows in which they stood, and fell on the peoples' necks, and kissed them tenderly, and went away with them down avenues of light, and were so happy in their company, that lying in his bed he wept for joy. But there were many angels who did not go with them, and among them one he knew. The patient face that once had lain upon the bed was glorified and radiant, but his heart found out his sister among the host.

His sister's angel lingered near the entrance of the star, and said to the leader among those who had brought the people hither,

"Is my brother come?"

And he said "no."

She was turning hopelessly away, when the child stretched out his arms, and cried, "O, my sister, I am here! Take me!" And then she turned her beaming eyes upon him, and it was night; and the star was shining into the room, making long rays down towards him as he saw it through his tears.

From this hour forth, the child looked out upon the star as on the home he was to go to, when his time should come; and he thought that he did not belong to the earth alone, but the star too, because of his sister's angel gone before.

There was a baby born to be a brother to the child; and while he was so little that he never yet had spoken a word, he stretched his tiny form upon his bed and died.

Again the child dreamed of the open star, and of the company of angels, and the train of people, and the row of angels with their beaming eyes all turned upon those people's faces.

Said his sister's angel to the leader: "Is my brother here?"

And he said: "Not that one, but another."

As the child beheld his brother's angel in her arms, he cried: "O, sister, I am here! Take me!" And she turned and smiled at him and the star was shining.

He grew to be a young man, and was busy at his books, when an old servant came to him and said:

"Thy mother is no more. I bring her blessing on her darling son."

Again, at night, he saw the star and all the former company.

Said his sister's angel to the leader: "Is my brother come?"

And he said "Thy mother."

And a mighty cry of joy went forth through all that star, because the mother was re-united to her two children. And he stretched out his arms, and cried: "O, mother, sister and brother, I am here! Take me!" And they answered him, "Not yet," and the star was shining.

He grew to be a man, whose hair was turning gray, and he was sitting in his chair by the fireside, heavy with grief, and with his face bedewed with tears, when the star opened once again.

Said his sister's angel to the leader: "Is my brother come?"

And he said "Nay, but his maiden daughter."

And the star was shining.

Thus the child came to be an old man, and his once smooth face was wrinkled, and his steps were slow and feeble, and his back was bent.

And one night as he lay on his bed his children standing round, he cried, as long ago:

"I see the star!"

They whispered to one another:—"He is dying."

And he said, "I am. My age is falling from me like a garment, and I move towards the star as a child.—And, O, my Father, now I thank thee that it has so often opened to receive those dear ones who await me!"

And the star was shining—and it shines upon his grave.

THE "DRUGGER" STORY.—To hear Gough tell the "drugger" story is worth a quarter at any time. The story is a capital one, but it takes the man to tell it. This he does in some such words as these:

A long, lean, gaunt Yankee entered a drug store and asked,

"Be you the druggar?"

"Well, I s'pose so, I sell drugs."

"Waal, hev you got any uv this here scentin' stuff as the gals put on their henkerchers?"

"O, yes."

"Waal, our Sal's gwine to be married, and she gin me ninepence and told me to invest the hull amount in scenten stuff, so's to make her sweet, if I could find some to suit; so if you hev a mind I'll just smell round."

The Yankee smelled round without being suited until the druggist got tired of him; and taking down a bottle of hartshorn, said:

"I've got a scenten stuff that will suit you. A single drop on your handkerchief will stay for weeks, and you can't wash it out, but to get the strength of it you must take a big smell."

"Is that so, Mister? Waal, just hold on a minute till I got my breath, and when I say neow, you put it under my smeller."

The hartshorn of course knocked the Yankee down, as liquor has done many a man. Do you suppose he got up and smelt again, as the drunkard does? Not he; but rolling up his sleeves and doubling up his fists, he said:

"You made me smell that tarnal everlastin' stuff, Mister, and now I'll make you smell fire and brimstone."

FIERCE FUN.—In Wisconsin there is a town called Oshkosh. It is regarded by the people of that section as a "great place for fun." And if we admit that the local definition of "fun" be correct, its repute is not undeserved. It chanced recently that a minister from another part of the State started to go to Oshkosh.

He had gone a few miles on his journey when he was shocked by meeting a man limping along with the blood running down one side of his face. On being questioned, the man said he had been up to Oshkosh "having a little fun with the boys." Two miles farther on, another man was met, with an arm in a sling, a bunged eye and torn clothing. He told the distance to Oshkosh, said it was a live town, and that he had been up there "having a little fun with the boys."

Pondering on these facts the minister proceeded pensively until he came to a man seated by the side of the road with a sprained arm and only one ear. He was washing the place whence the other had been bitten off. The minister stopped and expressed his sympathy. The man averred that it was nothing, he had merely been up to Oshkosh; "having a little fun with the boys." "But," said the minister severely, "what do you suppose your wife will say when she sees you in this state?" The man smiled a sardonic smile, and putting his hand in his pocket brought forth a piece of nose, a section of scalp, with hair attached, and a piece of cheek bitten from his antagonist's face, and holding them up to the minister, said: "What do you suppose his wife will say when she sees him?" The minister silently went his way, a sadder and a sager man.—Exchange.

It is only those who have done nothing, who fancy they can do everything.

Christians and Politics.

Another political conflict is drawing near in which the destiny of our glorious Republican institutions are destined to prosper or prove a failure. It becomes every intelligent citizen to calmly consider the important question, as we have passed through one of the most terrible conflicts in the history of Republican institutions in the world.

Another Presidential contest is drawing near, already are the marshalling voices of political leaders heard in all ends of the land. Secret oath bound societies are organized to lay violent hands if their party is not entrusted with the reins of government, and to slay the man who shall be elected President who does not carry out their political wishes. In private caucuses the preliminaries have already been settled, and feelers are put forth in various ways, by ascertaining the beating of the general pulse. The first heavings of public commotion are already felt, and the multitudes by their growing attention are indicating their readiness to be taken up and borne away by the storm; and many professors of religion if not firmly planted on the principles of his religion will become wrecked in the sea of strife, and perhaps be led by corrupt and bad men to ruin our glorious country by rebellion and war. It becomes every true loving, and loyal citizen and Christian, to pray that the God of Nations may bring us out of this conflict in triumph, and that peace and prosperity, and harmony, may prevail in our country, so we may be one people with equal liberty and justice to all classes standing upon the platform of universal liberty and general education. We know the past history and character of these campaigns; and we have every reason to believe that in this respect, what has been shall be again. Indeed it is prophesied by quiet and thinking men, that the coming campaign will be more wild and exciting than any in the history of our government. With the past in remembrance it requires but little imagination to picture the scenes that are to be witnessed. There is not a nook or corner of the land so shut out, but will be reached by political Cestes and demagogues, to lead the ignorant and uninformed to the polls, like cattle to shambles to be slaughtered. In the quietest rural retirements will be felt the rising of the waters, and heard the dashing of the waves of the human ocean, tempest tossed,—we might perhaps add to waft a feather or drown a fly. Market and railroad cars, public squares, and halls, and groves, will all witness the war of words, and perhaps of bloodshed; God forbid. Of course the general interests of religion will suffer; the hearts and minds of many members of the Church will be wholly swallowed up in the wild excitement, unless firmly planted on the rock of eternal truth. The pulpit will seem altogether too tame, the sanctuary too quiet, in the midst of the excitement that shall be, and all such as are not firmly settled in their religious habits, will be cut away as dry leaves by an autumnal storm. Much, O how much, which Christianity has gained in quiet times will be torn, overturned and carried away to be gathered no more. Christians have reason to dread what is coming; they have reason to deprecate the general evil influence which the excitement will effect; they have reason to fortify themselves, and to clothe their principles, as with a coat of mail, lest the insidious power get the mastery over them. Let Christians be calm and considerate. No duty to your country, no duty to political leaders, requires a sacrifice at your hands such as those which political campaigns will demand. The more you become excited yourself, the more you will aid in exciting others, the less will both you and they be in a condition to discharge wisely the duties required of you at the ballot box. With whatever party your sympathies lay, you will find that a few central principles are all that have any merit, in the contest; these you can best know from reliable official acts, and documents. Who has a right to demand of you to scorch yourself in the burning sun and cover yourself with dust by marching in noisy processions, and to shout approbation to the flippant, and often foolish declamations of stump orators. Such a demand is a reflection on a man of intelligence and judgment. Suffer not yourself to be as dumb cattle driven; take an interest in great questions of the land, as it is meet and right, and the bounden duty of every good citizen to do, but do it rationally and soberly, never forgetting that you are a Christian, as well as a citizen, and that you are pledged by your vows, first to render unto God the things that be God's, and then subordinately to this first duty, render unto Cæsar the things that be Cæsar's, neither in thoughts or acts suffer yourself to be drawn away from your duties as a Christian. Falsehoods innumerable are created for effect by all parties, but it is for the thoughtful, and calm, and the wise, to distinguish the chaff from the wheat. Let us therefore, my brethren, be calm, and do our duty to God and our Country, pray for those in authority that all may lead a peaceful life.

A Proclamation of Amnesty.

By the President of the United States.

WHEREAS, In the month of July, Anno Domini 1861, in accepting the condition of civil war which was brought about by insurrection and rebellion in several of the States which constituted the United States, the two Houses of Congress did solemnly declare that that war was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for any purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but only to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that so soon as these objects should be accomplished, the war on the part of the Government should cease:

And whereas, The President of the United States has, heretofore, in the spirit of that declaration, and with the view of securing for it ultimate and complete effect, set forth several proclamations offering amnesty and pardon to persons who had been or were concerned in the aforenamed rebellion, which proclamations, however, were attended with prudential reservations and exceptions then deemed necessary and proper, and which proclamations were respectively issued on the 8th day of December, 1863; on the 26th day of March, 1864; on the 20th day of May, 1865, and on the 7th day of September, 1867; and

Whereas, The said lamentable civil war has long since altogether ceased, with an acknowledgment by all the States of the supremacy of the Federal Constitution, and of the Government thereunder; and there no longer exists any reasonable ground to apprehend a renewal of the said civil war, or any foreign interference, or any unlawful resistance by any portion of the people of any of the States to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and

Whereas, It is desirable to reduce the standing army, and to bring to a speedy termination military occupation, martial law, military tribunals, abridgment of the freedom of speech and of the press, and suspension of the privileges of habeas corpus and of the right of trial by jury, such incroachments upon our free institutions in time of peace being dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genius and spirit of our republican form of government, and exhaustive of the national resources;

And whereas, It is believed that amnesty and pardon will tend to secure a complete and universal establishment and prevalence of municipal law and order, in conformity with the constitution of the United States, and to remove all appearances and presumption of a retaliatory of vindictive policy on the part of the Government, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations, and disfranchisements, and on the contrary to promote and procure complete fraternal reconciliation among the whole people with due submission to the Constitution and laws;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do, by virtue of the Constitution, and in the name of the people of the United States, hereby proclaim and declare unconditionally, and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, excepting such person or persons as may be under prosecution or indictment in any court of the United States having competent jurisdiction upon a charge of treason or other felony, a full pardon and amnesty for the offence of treason against the United States or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights of property, except as to slaves, and except also as to any property of which any person may have been legally divested under the laws of the United States.

In testimony whereof I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, the 4th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1868, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 93d.

By the President,
ANDREW JOHNSON.

ADOPTIVE MASONRY.—An exchange paper says: "A ceremony was performed in one of the Masonic Lodges of New York city some time ago, which is but rarely known in this country.—It was the conferring of what are known as the degrees of the Eastern Star, or adoptive Masonry, upon about two hundred ladies, who were the wives, daughters, sisters, or widows of Masons. The Past Grand Masters of New York State were present and assisted at the ceremony, and the master of the lodge stated that he would hereafter labor in the Grand Lodge to have it use its great influence with the grand lodges of the world for the purpose of having some token brought into being, and generally recognized, by which wives, sisters, daughters, widows, and mothers of Masons may make themselves known all over the world." In Oddfellowship the degree of "Rebecca" is conferred on the wives of members with the same purpose as above indicated.

The Democratic Convention.

The National Democratic Convention, which assembled at New York on the 4th instant, after a great deal of filibustering and buncombe, made its nominations. Horatio Seymour, of New York, was placed in nomination as President, and Frank P. Blair, of Missouri, for Vice President. Both are well known in political circles. Seymour was Governor of New York during the rebellion and his record while in that position shows some blasting acts, which were not and cannot be redeemed by his brilliant ones. He declared he did not seek the nomination, and declined each time he was nominated, until the last ballot, when he permitted Vallandigham to influence the Ohio delegation to cast a solid vote for him, which was followed by all the rest of the States in turn. Frank Blair is as well known as the Blairs have generally made themselves. He is what the Democrats so peculiarly style many Republicans, that is, a "renegade." He was at one time a prominent member and officeholder in the Republican party, and now since he has linked his fortunes with the Democratic party, he has secured the service of the "ring" to make him their candidate for Vice President. His influence in the west is not great; and indeed it is the popular opinion among Democrats that the ticket is a poor one. But now that they have it, Republicans should not deceive themselves with the idea that they will not work for it, and it behooves us to be equal with them in the support of our candidates Grant and Colfax. While we can thank the Democrats for making such a weak ticket, our aim should be to make the majority for our own candidates the more complete and overwhelming. Therefore, go to work, and work in unison for the Republican ticket, and the preservation of Union principles.

☞In other columns of this paper will be found the ballotings for candidates and the platform of the Democratic Convention. After several days of a struggle, all the strongest and most popular names before the Convention were dropped. Seymour and Blair were nominated. This result of the labors of the Convention surprised everybody, as the material was before the Convention from which to select a strong ticket. We do not believe that five men in every hundred of the Democratic voters in any of the States would have named such a ticket had they been previously consulted. All the interest that could have been thrown in the campaign has been thrown overboard to gratify the "Democracy pure" such as Vallandigham & Co., and just so long as such men are permitted to lead will the party remain in the minority. Mr. Pendleton was not strong enough to secure the nomination for himself, but he was strong enough to say who should be placed upon the ticket, and if the ticket should be elected, Mr. Pendleton or Mr. Vallandigham will certainly occupy a high seat in Seymour's Cabinet.

Organization of the Incoming States.

The States which are admitted to representation in Congress have elected Republican Governors and Legislatures, and their principal State officers are as follows:

	Governor.	Lieut. Governor.
Alabama,	Wm. F. Smith,	A. J. Applegate.
Florida,	Harrison Reed,	Wm. H. Gleason.
Georgia,	R. B. Bullock,	(None.)
Louisiana,	H. C. Warmouth,	Oscar J. Dunn.
N. Carolina,	Wm. W. Holden,	Tod. R. Caldwell.
S. Carolina,	Robert K. Scott,	Lemuel Boozer.

Smith and Holden are natives of their States, and were Union men during the war. Gov. Bullock is a native of New York, but for some years resided in Georgia. Gov. Clayton is a native of Pennsylvania, but was an officer of Kansas troops. Gov. Reed was formerly a Wisconsin editor. Gov. Warmouth is a native of Illinois, and was an officer of Missouri troops. Gov. Scott is a native of Pennsylvania, and was an officer of Ohio Troops.

Of the Lieutenant Governors, Gleason, Dunn, Caldwell and Boozer are Southern born, and Lieut. Gov. Dunn is a colored man. Applegate went from Indiana, and Gleason from Wisconsin.

Florida has elected United States Senators. The Florida Senators are M. A. S. Welch and T. W. Osborne.

The Representatives elect are twenty-eight Republicans and four Democrats.

THE FEELING AT THE SOUTH.—Rev. Dr. Sears, the agent of the Peabody educational fund, has while in that capacity recently investigated the condition of the Southern States. He declares "that both sections of the country do very materially misunderstand and misinterpret each other." He alleges that the extinction of slavery is acquiesced in by the better portion of the community "sincerely and without reluctance." He does not conceal the bitter feeling which existed at the close of the war towards the North and its citizens. "But that feeling is to a remarkable degree passing away." We believe that a man who goes into the Southern States disposed to be civil and kind, will be received as well as a Southern man, with the same disposition, would be received in the North; and it has only been those who went South to inflame the passion instead of appealing to the reason, that have been molested. We are pleased to note the signs of returning fraternity among the Southern people.

The Democratic Candidate for Vice President.

There will be no difficulty understanding where Gen. Frank P. Blair stands. His platform can be understood. The following letter written by him very lately should not be lost sight of in the contest.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1868.

Col. James O. Broadhead:

DEAR COLONEL: In reply to your inquiries, I beg leave to say that I leave to you to determine, on consultation with my friends from Missouri, whether my name shall be presented to the Democratic Convention, and to submit the following as what I consider the real and only issue in this contest:

The reconstruction policy of the Radicals will be complete before the next election; the States so long excluded will have been admitted, negro suffrage established, and the carpet baggers installed in their seats in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their President and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeal. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive, who is sworn to maintain the Constitution, and who will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its fundamental principles.

If the President elected by the Democracy enforces or permits others to enforce these reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives, will control both branches of Congress and his Administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.

There is but one way to restore the Government and the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpation at the South, disperse the carpet bag State governments, and allow the white people to reorganize their own governments and elect Senators and Representatives. The House of Representatives will contain a majority of Democrats from the North, and they will admit the Representatives elected by the white people of the South, and with the co-operation of the President it will not be difficult to compel the Senate to submit once more to the obligations of the Constitution. It will not be able to withstand the public judgment, if distinctly invoked and clearly expressed, on this fundamental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all future strife to put this issue plainly to the country.

I repeat that this is the real and only question which we should allow to control us: Shall we submit to the usurpations by which the Government has been overthrown or exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration? It is idle to talk of bonds, greenbacks, gold, the public faith and the public credit. What can a Democratic President do in regard to any of these with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs—by which an army is maintained to protect these vagabonds in their outrages upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenues and resources of the Government and destroy its credit—make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances, and to do this we must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into the dust the usurpations of Congress known as the reconstruction acts. I wish to stand before the convention upon this issue, as it is one which embraces everything else that is of value in its large and comprehensive results. It is the one thing that includes all that is worth a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives dignity, honor, or value to the struggle.

Your friend, FRANK P. BLAIR

☞There is nothing in the Democratic ticket to gain strength from any other party. The war Democracy and Conservative Republicans will spit upon such a ticket.

There were more Rebel Soldiers in the New York Convention than Union Soldiers.

Political Chip Basket.

Miss Susan B. Anthony addressed a letter to the National Democratic convention in New York, in which she asked the privilege of appearing before them, during the sitting of the Convention, to demand the enfranchisement of the women of America. The letter was read and produced contemptuous laughter. Miss Anthony may have been there, but the Convention was too much engaged to listen to her, and so she will have to bide her time.

For the information of the Democrats who persistently allege that none but old Democrats can be selected by Republicans, we will tell them that Frank Blair, Jr., who is now up for Vice President on their ticket, was an original "abolitionist," and one of the most Radical of Missouri "Radicals," elected as such to Congress from the St. Louis district under Lincoln's first administration.

A good story is told about the "fractional" support which Chase received in the Convention, when he got a "half" vote. It is said that a gentleman, in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, bet a thousand dollars that the name of the Chief Justice would not be mentioned in the Convention; and that on the next day (Wednesday) one of the California delegates out of funds was bought over to vote for Chase on condition of receiving half the bet. Accordingly and of course the Chase man won the wager.

Conservative Democrats should bear in mind that Vallandigham made the nomination for President for the Democratic party. He still dictates to the interest of his brethren at the South. He is hand in hand with Wade Hampton and other prominent rebels to bring the Democratic party into still further disgrace and consequent defeat. Conservative men cannot go with such a crowd, nor be willing to be led by such leaders.

Congress has passed a bill providing that eight hours shall be the duration of a day's work for all laborers and others in the service of the Government. The bill passed the Senate by the decisive vote of 26 to 11, having been previously passed by the House by an emphatic majority.

Thaddeus Stevens presented new articles of impeachment, five in number, against Andrew Johnson, in the House, on Tuesday last. It is not probable that they will be endorsed by the House.

Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, late of the Confederate Service, has received a full pardon from the President, through the influence of Mr. Secretary Seward. This is the first pardon yet granted to a full general in the confederate service.

☞The New York Herald and New York Times, both papers opposed to Grant before the nomination of Seymour and Blair now say it is impossible to defeat Grant with such a ticket.

Democratic National Convention.

The Democratic National Convention assembled in the city of New York on Saturday the 4th inst., and succeeded in making the nominations on Thursday last when the Convention adjourned. Every State was represented—from some of the Southern by men who were prominent Rebels during the war. The platform adopted before the nominations were made will be found on first page. The Registry Law Declared Unconstitutional.

The Supreme Court, sitting in equity in Philadelphia, declared the new registry law unconstitutional. Chief Justice Thompson delivered the opinion, which first rehearses the power of the Court to review and invalidate such acts where they contravene the Constitution. The Court opposes the idea that the board of aldermen, or any other board or body, shall have the right to say who shall or shall not be registered, or who shall not vote. The manner of getting up the registry lists of fines, and the other sections of the bill, are denounced as illegal and unjust. The Chief Justice concludes his opinion as follows:

"I have not noticed the citation of authorities by the counsel for respondents to prove that registry laws have been held constitutional by the Courts of other States. This might be owing to the peculiarities of the constitutional provisions of those States, but another reason exists for not noticing them. We do not mean at this moment to decide that no constitutional registration can be enacted. For myself, I think there might be, and possibly in such form as to protect the rights of all legal voters, and secure the people to some extent, at least, against the possibility of fraud at the ballot box. Be this, however, as it may, we are not ready to assert that the action in question is of a character within the power of the Legislature to pass. This conclusion leaves all the election laws in force, which were intended to be superceded by this act.—These provisions are well understood. They have been in operation many years, with but comparatively few complaints, not resulting from the laws themselves so much as from the want of vigilance in administering them. This the penalties of the laws should remedy. Elections under these laws, will, therefore, impose no hardships, nor do any wrong to the people, if conducted as the law requires, and it is in this spirit we ought to expect them to be conducted. For these and other reasons which might be given a majority of us think that the injuction prayed for in each of the bills should be granted, on the complainants each entering bail in the sum of $1,000 to be approved by the court, or a judge thereof."

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have
Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Slash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yes, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; you, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain, and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless; it has no stain; it gives no smart; It is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extended from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed seventy physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which my doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city, any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

Proceedings of the Town Council.

Stated Meeting,—July 3, 1868.

Present: Chief Burgess, Mr. Glazier; Assistant Burgess, Mr. Elliot; Council, Messrs. Black, Carmon, Cunningham, Jackson and Port.

The minutes of the last stated meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Jackson, from the committee on streets reported "An Ordinance declaring certain streets public highways," which was read, and on motion the rules were suspended and the ordinance was read a second and third time and passed finally.

A bill of R. McMurtrie's, Esq., was read and on motion was laid upon the table.

The Check Roll of the Street Commissioner for the month of June, amounting to $18.68 was read and on motion, orders were granted for the same.

Bills of the Gas Co., for gas consumed in the street lamps during the months of May and June, amounting to 16.80 were read and an order granted for the amount.

On motion, the Chief Burgess appointed Messrs. Jackson, Port and Elliot, a committee to call upon the delinquent collectors of tax and enforce a settlement of their respective duplicates before the next stated meeting.

On motion of Mr. Black it was

Resolved, That the Street Commissioner shall, under the direction of the committee on streets, proceed to make street crossings at the following named points, to wit: Over St. Clair St., at the northern side of Washington street; and over Montgomery, Bath and Franklin streets, on the southern side of Washington street.

Mr. Cunningham offered the following preamble and resolution which were read, considered and adopted, to wit:—

Whereas the grading of the pavements as required by the "Ordinance relating to the side-walks or pavements in that part of the borough known as West Huntingdon" passed on the 1st day of May, 1868, was not completed within the time mentioned in said Ordinance, therefore

Resolved, That the time fixed in the second section of said Ordinance within which said pavements should be made, to wit: on or before the 1st day of July instant, be and the same is hereby extended to the first day of August next.

An Ordinance declaring certain streets public highways,

Be it enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the borough of Huntingdon and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same:

SEC. 1.—That Washington street, of the width of sixty feet from the western line of Charles street to the Warm Springs road at the line of the Ranner farm; Mifflin street of the width of fifty feet from the western line of Charles street to Fulton street, and from Fulton street of the width of sixty-feet to Locust street: Fulton street of a width of fifty feet from Washington street to Mifflin street; Chestnut street of the width of fifty feet from the first alley east of the Pennsylvania Railroad to Moore street; Walnut street of the width of fifty feet from said alley to Muddy run; Spruce street of the width of fifty feet from said alley to said run; Pine street of the width of fifty feet between the last named points; and Locust street of the width of fifty feet from the Petersburg road to Mifflin street, as surveyed and laid out upon the ground and marked upon the plan of West Huntingdon as recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in and for the county of Huntingdon, be, and the same are hereby declared public streets or highways.

Passed, July 3, 1868.

Attest: HENRY GLAZIER, Chief Burgess.

☞We again call the attention of Farmers to the advantages offered by the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Danville, Pa. Their rates are lower than any other Company in the State, simply because they can AFFORD to insure at a low rate. They are never called upon to pay for the burning of towns or village property, stores, &c., because they insure no such property. Insure at once. Thunder storms are of almost daily occurrence and your barns are in great danger from lightning, especially when filled with hay and grain. Protect your property while you have it. Insure in time. The small cost of Insurance in the above Company, is next to nothing when compared with the risk you are running. And the fact that they insure no town, village, store, or steam property whatever, should induce every farmer to insure with them at once and the sooner the better. Address their Agent, C. R. Gearhart, Post Office, Huntingdon, Pa.

Serious Stabbing Affair.

Saturday, (the fourth) a serious stabbing affair occurred at Mt. Union. It seems several young men from adjacent towns met at or near the hotel at the railroad station in Mt. Union when angry words were exchanged, and finally scuffling ensued. During the struggle Isaac Creig, of Mill Creek stabbed a young man named Wilson, from Mapleton, several times, inflicting severe wounds in the side under the "short ribs," and less serious injuries upon several other parties engaged in the affair. As the case will most probably come before August Court for trial we refrain from commenting on the affray further than to state that whiskey was probably the cause of the whole trouble. Wilson, we learn is improving and the other persons injured are not in danger. Creig has not yet been arrested.—Monitor.

Festival at the Castilian Garden.

A Festival will be held on Thursday evening next in the Castilian Garden for the benefit of the Baptist Church of Huntingdon. Ice Cream, peaches and cream, and other refreshments will be served, and a prominent feature of the entertainment of the evening will be the distribution of a silver mounted Cane to one of the clergymen of the place; one richly finished Masonic apron and Sash; one elegant Lady's Fan, and one superb ivory laid Gavel, suitable for any public assembly. The person or society receiving the highest number of votes receives the gifts.—Admission ten cents. All are respectfully invited and expected to patronize liberally.

—Candidates will remember that all announcements must be paid for, $2. Communications urging the nomination of any of the candidates must also be paid for at the rate of five cents a line. All candidates complying with our terms can have the use of our columns. All have equal privileges.

—At a raising in Porter township lately, a vote was taken on the Presidential question. The vote stood Grant and Colfax 75, opposed 3. Bully.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The Soldiers' Orphan school of Cassville, numbering about one hundred and seventy, favored us with their presence on the fourth, and gave us an interesting concert. The children performed their parts well, considering the disadvantages which they had to contend with. There not being sufficient seats to seat more that one fourth of the audience; the falling of the platform, which was caused by rushing too many upon it, owing to the scarcity of seats on the ground, and the excessive heat of the day, altogether would have a tendency to divert the attention of the children. The whole affair however, throughout the festivities of the day may be said to be a grand success, as the great numbers that were present appeared to be highly entertained, and better than all, the children of the orphan school were highly delighted with their visit, and the warm reception given them by our good citizens.

There has been no little fault-finding, by some persons, in regard to the manner in which Prof. Guss has been conducting this school; but judging from the manners and behaviour of the children, and the affection exhibited between Principal, Assistants and pupils, we are led to believe there is little room to find fault. Prof. Guss and his corps of assistants, are certainly the right men in the right place; and should have the good wishes of every good and patriotic citizen.

We are favored most every day of beholding the smiling faces of sundry candidates, who represent the claims of divers factions and parties, and all of these clever fellows tell us their chances are good, which we are indeed, sorry to hear. We do not wish to be understood as wishing any of these sociable chaps any serious defeat, but we do think that it would be a serious calamity to our county to have, for instance, eighteen or twenty Sheriff's elected for the coming term. Hope they'll not all get elected. The time is drawing near, when the Union Republican voters of this Legislative District will in council say, "who is to represent us in our State Legislature;" when it is to be hoped that it will appear that Samuel T. Brown, Esq., is the choice of the people. He is in every respect the man for that place. He is also, an honest man, and every friend of a reformation in the State Legislature should rally to his support.

DIED,

In this place on Friday evening the 10th inst., after several years illness, Mr. JOHN M. CUNNINGHAM, in the 59th year of his age.

[From the Newberry [N. C.] Republican.]

Obituary.

Died, in this city, Tuesday, June 30, JAS. L. GLAZIER, Esq, of the firm of James R. Moorhead & Co. Mr. Glazier was born in Huntingdon, Pa., and was twenty-seven years of age at the time of his decease. After a severe and lingering illness of three weeks duration, he succumbed to the disease, typhoid fever. He was attended by his wife, mother and his partners in the firm, who administered to his comfort and did all in their power to alleviate his sufferings, but no human effort could stay the ravages of the fell destroyer, and he was cut off in the bloom of his youth. Mr. Glazier was a very exemplary young gentleman, a consistent member of the Methodist Church and beloved by all who knew him. His death is deeply deplored and it has inflicted a heavy bereavement on his surviving relatives and acquaintances. Time alone can assuage their grief. The remains of Mr. Glazier were taken to Huntingdon on Wednesday last by his family and reached their destination at 7 o'clock, Thursday evening, where they were interred.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

It makes FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES: Lock, Knot, Double Lock, and Double Knot; each stitch perfect and alike on both sides of the fabric.

Operators can select any stitch they want, and change from one stitch to another without stopping the Machine.

Its stitches cannot be excelled for firmness, elasticity, durability, and beauty of finish.

No difficulty experienced in sewing across thick seams.

Sews light and heavy fabrics with equal facility.

It will Braid, Tuck, Quill, Cord, Hem, Fell, Bind, Gather, and do all kinds of Stitching required by families and Manufacturers.

The work will feed either to the right or left, without stopping the Machine.

The most inexperienced find no difficulty in using it.

It is thoroughly practical and easily understood.

It has no springs to get out of order, and will last a lifetime.

It runs easily, and is almost noiseless.

It is the most rapid sewer in the world; making five stitches to each revolution.

It uses the same thread on both sides of the fabric.

It oils no dresses, all its machinery being on top of the table.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Mr. Murphy, from the Committee on Resolutions, rose to report the platform agreed on, and which he sent to the Chairman, when it was read:

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution, the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all times to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First, The immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution.

Second, Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third, Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all money drawn from the people by taxation except so much as is required for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, to be honestly applied to such payment; where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States. [Thunders of applause.]

Fourth, Equal taxation of every species of property, according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities. (Renewed cheering and cries of "read it again.")

Fifth, One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder. (Great cheering and cries of "read it again.") The fifth resolution was again read and again cheered.

Sixth, Economy in the administration of the Government, the reduction of the standing army and navy, the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, (Great cheers,) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue: that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufacturers, and as will without diminishing the revenue impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh, Reform of abuse in the administration; the expulsion of corrupt men from office; the abrogation of useless offices; the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government; the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpation of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth, Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign power to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction. (Applause.)

In demanding these measures and reform we arraign the Radical party for its disregards of right and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution. It has repeatedly violated the most sacred pledge, under which alone has rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union, it has so far as is in its power dissolved it and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the writ of habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of the schools and the press; it has substituted arbitrary secret arrests and military trials and secret star chambers inquisition for constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered post and telegraph offices and entered the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavits as required by the Constitution; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created during the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution. And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts so-called of Congress as such are usurpations and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered; and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution; that the public lands should be distributed as widely among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre emption of homestead law and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the nominal price established by the Government; when grants of public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, shall be so applied that the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, [applause,] in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.—[Great applause.]

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element, and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operators with us as friends and brothers.

Mr. Murphy moved the previous question, which was ordered with few dissenting votes.

A delegate called for a re-reading, when great cries of "question, question," arose, which was put and adopted with few dissenting voices. The Convention rose to their feet with cheering.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebelents, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fath, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on Southeast corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa.

"Our OWN Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 80 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain Six Tapes, 20 to 55 springs, from 95 Cents to $2.00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods and at much lower prices.

"Our OWN Make" of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other skirt in the country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them—They are being sold extensively by merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. FOSTER'S

ORIENTAL

BITTERS.

A Remedy that has been tried and stood the test, not only in an occasional case, but in every community where used it has been pronounced the safest and most reliable remedy known for

DYSPEPSIA,
LOSS OF APPETITE,
WEAKNESS,
GENERAL DEBILITY,
PAIN OR CRAMP IN THE STOMACH OR BOWELS,
CHOLERA MORBUS,
HEADACHE,
NEURALGIA,
INTERMITTENT, OR CHILLS AND FEVER,
LIVER TONIC,
AND FOR ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

As an agreeable and safe remedy and an Invigorating Beverage it has no equal.

This valuable Bitters is composed of the essential properties of roots—the medicinal qualities of which have been carefully extracted. It is agreeable to the taste and does not leave that unpleasant taste in the mouth for hours after, that most medicines do.

As a Blood Purifier and Liver Tonic it has no equal.—It contains no calomel or other injurious drug, but is purely vegetable.

For Dyspepsia it cannot be excelled. It contains nothing injurious to the stomach, is mild and prompt in its action and effects a permanent cure by removing the cause of the complaint.

For Intermittent Fever or Chills and Fever this Bitters is a specific far busier and surer than quinine.

No family should be without it as the cost is trifling compared with the suffering that may be avoided by having it at hand in case of sudden attack.

Weakly Persons use the Oriental Bitters.

Invalids use the Oriental Bitters.

Dyspeptics use the Oriental Bitters.

Females use the Oriental Bitters.
